

Book Report

Title: The Whingdingilly

Author: Bill Peet

Illustrator: Bill Peet

- Centered title
- Labels
- Author / Illustrator's name listed
- Colons used

- Summary written in paragraph form with related scanned photos from book.

Summary: This book is about a dog name Scamp. He was sad because he wanted to be someone famous like Palomar the horse across the road.

The owner of Scamp was Orvie. Orvie wanted to know what was happening with Scamp. Because he saw Scamp sad.

Then one day Scamp ran away. He went into the forest. Then he saw Zildy and Zildy said that she could do better than a horse.

Zildy began to make Scamp into another animal. Zildy first put a camel hump on Scamp. And she danced and jumped. Here is the Whingdingilly. He is Scamp.

- Text features:
- Spell Checked
- Capitalization
- Punctuation
- Indented

This is only the first page of 3.